Miguel Huerto

Successfully participated the Gem Camp of KODA from June.13.2023 to Sep.1.2023

The course covered essential concepts and practical skills related to Docker, Git, and Ruby on Rails 7.
By acquiring proficiency in these technologies, you have equipped yourself with highly in-demand skills in the web development industry.

Additionally, you completed three projects during the bootcamp as your final output, demonstrating your ability to apply these technologies in practical scenarios. The completion of these projects showcases your aptitude for problem-solving, creativity, and effective implementation.
